

Effective Sustainability Practices - Good for the Planet, Good for Investors

As a leading owner of seniors housing and healthcare properties, we support and apply measurable sustainability practices and standards. Across our portfolio, we are undertaking large, long-term environmental programs and local sustainability initiatives that preserve and protect the planet while lowering operating costs and improving the efficiency of our portfolio.

Leader in Sustainability

Ventas's commitment to pursuing sound and effective sustainability practices has resulted in lasting economic efficiencies and a measurable reduction of our impact on the planet. As a recognized leader in sustainability, Ventas is dedicated to continuous improvement. By collaborating with our operating partners, we continue to enhance our energy efficiency, reduce our carbon footprint and manage operating cost.

That's not just excellence. That's Excellence. Sustained.®
